Suspect Arrested in Connection to a Chop Shop

Riverside, CA -- On Wednesday, December 1, 2010, investigators from the Riverside Auto Theft Interdiction Detail and vehicle theft detectives from the North and West Neighborhood Policing Centers conducted a business inspection per 2805 of the California Vehicle Code at a business in the 6200 block of Rutland Avenue.

During this joint operation, a recently stolen vehicle was located in the storage yard and linked to the listed business. Vehicle component parts to an active stolen vehicle were also located stored inside the business. The business owner was arrested in connection to this investigation.

Anyone with information pertaining to this on-going investigation is asked to contact Detective Matt Lewis at (951) 955-2687.
